NEW QUESTION: 1

A company hires outside security experts to evaluate the security status of the corporate network. All of the company's IT resources are outdated and prone to crashing. The company requests that all testing be performed in a way which minimizes the risk of system failures. Which of the following types of testing does the company want performed?

- A. White box testing
- B. Vulnerability scanning
- C. Penetration testing
- D. WAF testing

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION: 2

A client's congestive heart failure has been treated, and he will soon be discharged. Discharge teaching should include instruction to call the physician if he notices a 2-lb weight gain in a 24-hour period.

Increased weight gain may indicate:

- A. Development of diabetes insipidus
- B. A diet too high in calories and saturated fat
- C. Decreasing renal function
- D. Decreasing cardiac output

Answer: D

Explanation:

Explanation/Reference:

Explanation:

(A) Increased calories may result in weight gain, but there is no indication in this question that this man's diet has changed in a way that would result in increased calories. (B) Decreasing cardiac output stimulates the renin-angiotensin-aldosterone cycle and results in fluid retention, which is reflected by weight gain. (C) Decreasing renal function may result in fluid retention, but this question gives no indication that this man has any renal problems. (D) Profound diuresis occurs with diabetes insipidus, which results in weight loss.

NEW QUESTION: 3

Your network contains an Active Directory domain named contoso.com. All servers run Windows Server

2012. The domain contains a file server named Server1.

All client computers run Windows 8.

Users share the client computers and frequently log on to different client computers.

You need to ensure that when the users save files in the Documents folder, the files are saved automatically to \\Server1\Users\. The solution must minimize the amount of network traffic that occurs when the users log on to the client computers.

What should you do?

- A. From a Group Policy object (GPO), configure the Drive Maps preference.
- B. From a Group Policy object (GPO), configure the Folder Redirection settings.
- C. From the properties of each user account, configure the Home folder settings.
- D. From the properties of each user account, configure the User profile settings.
